Videos/DVDs for Unit 4 - Sustainability: Malama I Ka ‘Āina

Affluenza, Video

Summary: This 1 hour, anti-consumerism video is very engaging for students. It comes with several excellent activities, so it’s best seen in small parts over several lessons. There is also a follow-up video available entitled “Escape from Affluenza.”

Cost: $50 personal use, $250 classroom use (ask a librarian to purchase, also available at UH-Mānoa’s Sinclair Library). There are also 17 copies in the State Library System. Go to http://ipac.librarieshawaii.org/#focus to find and request this DVD to be delivered to your closest public branch.

The Corporation, DVD set

Summary: This 2 hour documentary gives teachers invaluable background information on the history of corporations, their present nature (equal to a sociopath) and impact on our future. It’s best shown to students in short segments (there are 10) or the 2nd DVD has numerous short interviews searchable by speaker or topic: Branding; Capitalism; Corporate Crime; Corporations & Government; Democracy; Ethics & Values; History. Strategies for change are presented throughout. This fits very well with the curriculum in Unit 4: Malama I Ka ‘Āina/Sustainability. Also check out www.tvo.org/thecorporation/teachers.html for excellent links for student research and the .BLM tab for student hand-outs. Also, 17 copies are available at Hawaii State public libraries for a 1 week, $1 rental. Check the Web site http://ipac.librarieshawaii.org/#focus to find and request this DVD be delivered to your closest public branch.

Cost: $25-$30
