Web Sites for Hawai`i (Big Island)

General

Big Island Summary: Seek website for county address and phone number to schedule class visitation.
Website: http://www.hawaiidws.org/

Cornell University Environmental and Earth Systems Program: http://www.geo.cornell.edu/hawaii/index.html

Environment Hawai`i Website: http://www.environment-hawaii.org/

Girls Exploring Math and Science: http://www.turquoise.net/~aauwkona/gems.html

Hawai`i Networked Learning Communities: http://www.hnlc.org/home/index.php

Online Magazine about the Big Island of Hawai`i: http://www.konaweb.com/

Pu'uhomua o Homaumau National Historical Park (808) 328-2288
Summary: A historical National Park that shares a glimpse of Hawaiian culture, the arts, and ways of living.

Timeline of Hawai`i Agriculture: http://www.hawaiiaq.org/history.htm
Kona Side

Articles from the West Hawai‘i Aquarium Project:
http://www.coralreefnetwork.com/kona/publications.htm

Info on Kona:
http://www.hnlc.org/resources/resourcedatabase.php?searchstring%5B%5D=%22Kona%22

Info on the Kona Hema Preserve:
http://www.nature.org/wherewework/northamerica/states/hawaii/preserves/art2359.html

Hilo Side

Summary: “Science, Culture Clash Over Sacred Mountain” An article from 2001 about astronomers on sacred land:
Website: http://www.moolelo.com/maunakea-latimes.html

Web Sites for Kaua‘i

Summary: Provides information on the history and culture on Kauai.
Website: http://www.kauaidiscovery.com/kauai/history/

Web Sites for Lānai

Summary: Great resource for activities.
Website: http://www.hawaiiweb.com/lanai/html/sites/default.htm

Kaunolu Village and Trail 1(866) 268-7459

Summary: This ancient Hawaiian fishing village was thought to be the first inhabited in the 15th Century. Kaunolu Village is on the register as a National Historical Landmark. There are stone foundations of more than 100 Hawaiian homes, storerooms, garden walls, and burial sites located here. Check out the following website for directions and safety information.
Website: http://www.hawaiiweb.com/lanai/sites_to_see/Kaunolu_Village_and_Trail.htm

Web Sites for Maui
Virtual Field Trip around Maui
http://satftp.soest.hawaii.edu/space/hawaii/vfts/maui/maui.air.photographs.html

Nature Conservancy
www.nature.org

Department of Water Supply
Maui Summary: Lanai and Molokai fall under the Maui County. Seek website for county addresses and phone numbers to schedule class visitation.
Address: Department of Water Supply, 200 South High Street, Wailuku, HI 96793-2155
Website: http://mauiwater.org/

National Tropical Botanical Garden (Kahanu Garden) (808) 332-7324
Summary: See beautiful flowers and rare and endangered Hawaiian species and learn about the efforts to save them. Check out the website for various operating hours, directions, reservations, and phone numbers.
Website: http://www.ntbg.org/

WEB SITES for MOLOKAʻI

ʻOhaha Ko Molokaʻi - Molokai’s Spirit & People Flourish (808) 553-3673
Contact Person: Louise Bush
Summary: Aloha from Molokai’s Visitors Association. Web site filled with various activities, contact information, and upcoming events such as the “Makahiki Festival” are listed. Also valuable here is information on various hikes.
Web Site: http://www.molokai-hawaii.com

WEB SITES FOR OʻAHU (6 MOKU, 4 DISTRICTS)

WEB SITES for the North Shore of Oahu (Waialua Moku)

Summary: This is the City and County of Honolulu Board of Water Supply Web site.

Summary: The University of Hawaiʻi at Mānoa Center for Oral History shares stories of the Waialua moku.
Website: http://www.oralhistory.hawaii.edu/pages/community/waialua.html
Summary: This website shows a map and gives a brief overview of the demographics, weather charts, public facilities, etc of Waialua:

WEB SITES for WINDEWARD O`AHU (KO`OLAUPOKO MOKU)

Summary: Kailua Bay Advisory Council (KBAC) hosts bimonthly streamwalks where community members learn more about their local water bodies from a stream expert. The water quality and overall "health" of the stream is also determined using KBAC's Visual Assessment Survey. Also has a helpful, “Find a Stream” search tool.
Website: http://www.kbac-hi.org/streamwalks.asp

Summary: Join the University of Hawai`i School of Ocean, Earth Sciences and Technology in studying Kāne`ohe Bay coral reefs.
Website: http://www.hawaii.edu/cisnet/contents.htm

Summary: Ko`olaupoko Sustainable Communities Plan from the city & county of Honolulu:
Website: http://www.co.honolulu.hi.us/refs/roh/klaupoko/

Summary: Ko`olaupoko resources features contact people for each ahupua`a. Various individuals play leadership roles in the stewardship of natural and cultural values: water resources, streams, wetlands, lo`i kalo, fish ponds, etc.
Website: http://www.pixi.com/~isd/index.html

Summary: Information about Olomano, including geology, cultural notes, and legends for the area.

WEB SITES for Windward O`ahu (Ko`olauloa Moku)

Summary: Community info for the areas of Lāie, Hau'ula, and Kahuku on-line:

Summary: The Ko`olauloa Educational Alliance Corporation (KEAC) is a proactive association of school, business, and community members dedicated to providing career pathways partnering and support to the Kahuku Complex Schools.
Website: http://keac.kahuku.org/

Summary: Information about Ko`olauloa watershed management and a brief history of the moku
Website: http://www.aecos.com/KOOLAU/ahupuua.html
Summary: This website shows a map and gives a brief overview of the demographics, weather charts, public facilities, etc of La`ie:
Website: http://www.city-data.com/city/Laie-Hawaii.html (see index to select alternate sites such as Ka`a`awa and Hau`ula).